We confirm that the company is entitled to exemption under section 249a(1) of the Companies Act 1985 from the requirement to be audited.

No notice under section 249b(2) of the Act has been deposited by shareholders in relation to the accounts for the financial period.

We acknowledge our responsibilities as directors for:

1. Ensuring the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Act; and
2. Preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial period and of its profit or loss for the financial period in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which comply with requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

Small Company Exemptions

Advantage has been taken in the preparation of this report of special exemptions applicable to small companies.

Directors Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs in the company and the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Follow applicable accounting standards subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is appropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safe guarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the detection and prevention of fraud and other irregularities.
