The company is entitled to exemption from audit under Section 477 of the Companies Act 2006 for the year ended 31 March 2015.

The members have not required the company to obtain an audit of its financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2015 in accordance with Section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

- (a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Sections 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006 and preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of each financial year and of its profit or loss for each financial year in accordance with the requirements of Sections 394 and 395 and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company.
- (b)

The abbreviated accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

The financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors on 24 June 2015 and were signed on its behalf by:

A M Ashall - Director

The notes form part of these abbreviated accounts

Notes to the Abbreviated Accounts for the Year Ended 31 March 2015

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured as the fair value of the consideration received or receivable and represents amounts receivable for services provided in the normal course of business net of value added tax.

Deferred tax

Deferred taxation is provided at the current rate on timing differences that have originated but not reversed by the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is more likely than not that the assets are recovered. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Taxation

The taxation liabilities of certain group companies are reduced wholly or in part by the surrender of losses by fellow group companies. The tax benefits arising from group relief are not recognised in the accounts of the surrendering companies.

Provisions

A provision is recognised in the balance sheet when the company has a constructive or legal obligation as a result of a past event and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. If the effect is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at the current time value of money.

Related party transactions

The company has taken advantage of the exemption under FRS 8 not to disclose transactions with related parties where those parties have 90% or more of their voting rights controlled within the group.

2. CALLED UP SHARE CAPITAL

Allotted, issued and fully paid:

Number:	Class:	Nominal value:	31.3.15	31.3.14
11	Ordinary	£1	11	11
1	Special Golden	£1	1	1
			12	12

The Special share has the following rights:-

General meetings - the holder of the Special share receives notice and is entitled to attend a meeting of the members of the company. Whilst the parent undertaking, Preston Brook Developments Limited holds the Special share the ordinary shareholders' shares carry no voting rights except the right on winding up of a return of capital paid up.

Board meetings - the holder of the Special share may appoint directors of the company.

Redemption - the Special share will be redeemable by the company on the later of the date on which 100% of the properties to be constructed on the site are complete or ten years from the adoption of the Articles.

3. ULTIMATE PARENT COMPANY

The company's holding company is Preston Brook Developments Limited and its ultimate holding company is Ashall Asset Management Limited, the directors of which own sufficient share capital to control the company. Both companies are registered in England and Wales.
