ACCOUNTANTS REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF AEGIS ADVANCED MATERIALS LIMITED

2

We report on the accounts for the year ended 30th April 2006 set out on pages 3 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As described on page 5 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

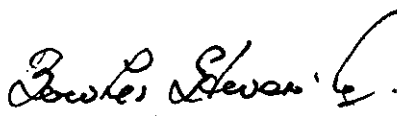

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985;
- (b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - (i) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 249C(6) of the Act; and
 - (ii) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in section 249A(4) of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 249B(1).

BALANCE SHEET

In the directors' opinion the company was entitled under section 249A(2) of the Companies Act 1985 to exemption from the audit of its accounts for the year ended 30th April 2006. No member of the company has deposited a notice under section 249B(2) requiring an audit of these accounts.

The directors are responsible for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Act and for preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of each financial year and of its profit or loss of each year in accordance with the requirements of section 226 of the Act and which otherwise comply with its requirements, so far as applicable to the company.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies and with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2005).

Signed on behalf of the board of directors.

M J KINGSLEY
Director

Approved by the board 10th January 2007.

NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS
for the year ended 30th April 2006

1 Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting

The accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective January 2005).

Turnover

Turnover represents amounts receivable for goods and services provided in the UK and overseas net of trade discounts, VAT and other related taxes.

Stocks

Stocks are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value.
