We confirm that the company is entitled to exemption under section 249a(1) of the Companies Act 1985 from the requirement to be audited.

No notice under section 249b(2) of the Act has been deposited by shareholders in relation to the accounts for the financial period.

We acknowledge our responsibilities as directors for:

1. ensuring the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Act; and
2. preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial period and of its profit or loss for the financial period in accordance with requirements of section 226, and which comply with requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable the company.

The directors have taken advantage in the preparation of these financial statements of special exemptions provided by Part I of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985 on the basis that the company qualifies as a small company.

The board approved the financial statements on pages 1 and 2 on 25th September 2001.

Signature .....

Director.

Notes on Financial Statements
31st December 2000

1. Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost accounting rules.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption from preparing a cash flow statement conferred by FRS1 on the grounds that it is entitled to the exemptions available in sections 246 to 247 of the Companies Act 1985 for small companies.

Depreciation

Depreciation of fixed assets is calculated to write off their cost or valuation over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Equipment 4 years, straight line.

2. Turnover

Turnover represents service charges and other income receivable from the occupants of the 3 flats within 22 & 24 Fernlea Road, Balham, London SW12 9RN.

Small company exemptions

Advantage has been taken in the preparation of this report of special exemptions applicable to small companies.

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
